Amen.

It is going to be an exciting, challenging and as always, a fun filled camp. Please pray for our youth- for the power of God to be manifest as we gather for worship and as we declare God's goodness.

9. WHITSUNDAY 20 MAY 2018

The Diocese of Sialkot, Church of Pakistan

Sialkot has been the cradle of the Punjabi-speaking Church, with historical records that go back to 1833, when Dutch and Scotch missionaries brought the gospel to this part of the world. Today, The Diocese of Sialkot has 35 Presbyters (priests), 8 Catechists and 6 Bible teachers; and consists of 30 parishes and over 160 congregations. It covers a large geographical area, with most of its members from impoverished villages among the Muslim majority communities. The diocese is serving the communities by providing education through their schools, and medicine to the sick. The Bishop of Sialkot, the Rt Rev Alwin Samuel says, "I praise God that He continues to strengthen us to share His love, and that our churches are filled with worship as God satisfies the spiritual hunger of all those who draw near to Him." He acknowledges, however, that their resources are limited, and travelling to these remote villages is constantly difficult. He asks for prayer for two other areas: 1) their parish in the salt mines of Khewra, where all the members are first generation converts from Hinduism (Alleluia!), and 2) Azad Kashmir, an area within the diocese that is in Pakistan-controlled Kashmir – that evangelistic activities can be organized here, to carry forth our Lord's mission.
