MEMORY VERSE (OCTOBER 2018)

Acts 9:15-16 (NIV)*

We are Family!

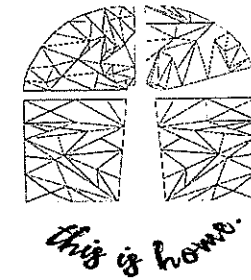

What's a home without family photos? As you walk into Bethel Hall, remember to stop by the foyer – we want your photos! Grab a fellow church family member, or your friend and take a photo. We will have our friendly photo ambassadors, get ready your pearly whites and flash them wide as you smile for the camera. Have many photos at home? Email us at SHCmediasg@gmail.com and we'll have them up on the Family Wall at the foyer.

It's going to be a Party

Every St Hilda's celebration will have food, and this anniversary service will be no different. Remember to get yourself (and your friends!) registered either at a sign-up sheet at the foyer or with the Church Office. Come ready for a celebration as we thank God for His continued faithfulness to our church. Do continue to pray and be expectant that our Heavenly Father is going to move mightily at this service!

This is Home. Welcome to our Home.

St Hilda's Anniversary Service 2018 | 18 November 2018, Sunday | 9am

This is Home.

Our anniversary service this year will be focused on the theme of home and family, with the tagline "This is Home." This celebration service is open to all and you are encouraged to invite your friends and loved ones to your home, our church. Postcard invites will be available for you at the back of the hall, grab one (or as many as you need) to share with your friends.

Called to be Fishers of Men

We all know that inviting friends and loved ones will require a lot of prayer – why not pray with your church family? On the wall along Bethel Hall, just outside the entrance to Joshua Hall, you'll see a fishing net being displayed. Write down the name of your invited guest on the fish-shaped paper available and peg it with a white-coloured peg. When your friends say "YES!" change it to a red-coloured peg to the name and the church family will celebrate with you! As we look forward to the service, we would encourage you to pray alongside your family members and let's believe in God for a great harvest.
