Tuesday 15 October 2019 - @ 2pm in Daniel Room

Following from the screening of “Luther” the film last month, *Rev Peter Cook from St Andrew’s Cathedral and Rev Martin Jungnickel will share their thoughts on the topic “How Protestant Is The Anglican Church Today?” Luther’s thoughts and teachings, as you know, sparked the Reformation movement in 16th century Europe which itself led to many different protestant movements. They challenged the Catholic Church as the sole religious order for Christianity.

Rev Peter and Rev Martin will talk about the impact of the Reformation on Britain and the theology, worship and structure of the Anglican Church, even today.

There will be time for Qs & As after the presentation, and rounded off with English Tea.

All are free to join us for a stimulating afternoon.

**Revd Peter Cook is Acting Associate Vicar at St Andrew's Cathedral. He and his wife Ineke have been at SAC for over 4 years, and in the Diocese over 13 years. Previously Peter was Vicar of Christ Church, Bangkok and Ineke served at the children and family ministry. They are Associate Mission Partners with Crosslinks UK.*

Revd Peter hails from England and is passionate about the history of his country.
