HOME

1. A NOTE OF APPRECIATION FROM COLIN AND LINDA CHEE

"We would like to express our heartfelt thanks for your presence at the wake and cremation of Linda's father Louis Tan. He recently went home to our Lord and to be with Mummy. We thank you for your support, prayers and love. We give glory to God that Daddy passed away peacefully although quite suddenly. We are gratified he spent time with grand-daughter Olivia, said the Lord's prayer with his grandson Keith, and a prayer of his own, and saw his family before he breathed his last. We also thank Pastor David Ng and Ruth Chia of St Andrew's Cathedral for walking with him through his journey of ageing, and for praying with him and anointing him with the Lord's peace before he passed on. Praise the Lord!"

St Hilda's Church Advisory on POKÉMON GO

The game Pokémon Go was launched in Singapore on 6 August 2016. It is played on a smartphone while walking around exploring real world locations.

While Pokémon Go has been hugely popular worldwide, serious concerns have also been raised about players trespassing on private properties, disturbing at places of worship, putting themselves in danger from traffic and even robbers.

I would like to assure St Hilda's Church worshipers that we take the sanctity of our premises seriously, as a private property and a consecrated place of worship set apart for the Almighty God. We need to look out for the safety of pedestrians on our narrow streets and in our crowded car parks. Our Kindergarten and our Friends Centres at Jalan Batu are safe places where little children and seniors respectively are educated and served without worrying about strangers poking around with smartphones.

For all these reasons, we are writing to Pokémon's publishers, Niantic, Inc., to exclude the use of all our premises from all aspects of gameplay through the feedback channels provided. We will monitor the situation and make more robust representations as necessary.

We graciously seek the kind cooperation of everyone not to play Pokémon at all times in any St Hilda's property, in order to uphold the sanctity, safety and security of our premises for the glory of God.
