PRAYER BULLETIN THIS WEEK

Church
- Let us thank God for bringing his Son Jesus Christ into this world to bring us redemption and to reconcile us to himself.
- We pray that the Church across the world will be a confident and joyful messenger of this Good News, even in this Advent season.
- We pray for blessing and anointing upon Bp Titus and all preachers of the Gospel in this month. May the Word of the Lord bring much fruit.

World
- We thank the Lord for showing his favour upon Singapore in controlling the spread of Covid-19 in the community. We pray that the Omicron variant will not set back the efforts around the world to revitalize social life.
- We thank God for the abundant provisions of most people in Singapore. May the Lord move our hearts to share with those in need, in Singapore and beyond.
- We continue to pray for the situation in Afghanistan and Pakistan. May the governments of these countries uphold peace and justice and protect minorities, even our Christian brothers and sisters.

St Hilda's Church
- Let us pray for many gospel seeds to be sown during Advent and Christmas. May our conversations at the Nativity Scene and the upcoming conference be seasoned with the love of Jesus. May those who hear the Good News for the first time repent of their sins and receive everlasting life.
- Let us pray for unity over the question of who shall operate St Hilda's Kindergarten in future. May we be grateful for the help available in our own diocese and seize every opportunity to bring the Good News to the children and their families and all who work in SHK.
- Pray for all who suffer in body, mind and spirit, the lonely and the bereaved. May Emmanuel be by their side and Jehovah Rapha be their healer.
