PRAYER BULLETIN THIS WEEK

Church

- Pray for God's special anointing over Bp Titus. May God's wisdom and discernment be his daily companions as he leads the Diocese in the advancement of the Lord's kingdom.
- Pray for God's grace, favour and protection over our deaneries and mission partners in their work to bring salvation to the lost.
- Pray for the rejuvenation of the church worldwide through the work of the Holy Spirit. That the gospel of Christ be shared widely with great enthusiasm and compassion in fulfillment of the Great Commission.

World and Singapore

- Pray for world leaders to be filled with God's wisdom, that leads to peace. May God change the hearts of those set on violence, aggression and oppression. May the Lord's justice prevail over all these.
- Pray that God in all His sovereignty, will bring an end to the war in Ukraine soon and cause peace and stability to be restored. Pray for God's protection over the people still in Ukraine, especially the vulnerable or disabled, as they are unable to flee from the violence. Pray that host communities will welcome refugees with compassion. Pray that in God's perfect timing, refugees will be returning home safely and be able to rebuild their lives in lasting peace.
- Pray that the Church in Ukraine and Russia be a voice for peace. May God's power be revealed through the church in bringing a message of hope and love in the midst of the darkness.
- Pray for peace in Israel, that no weapon formed against God's people will prevail and the Lord will have compassion on them.
- For Singapore, pray for our President, Prime Minister and all the leaders. May every decision concerning our nation be made in accordance with God's will, plans and purposes for Singapore.
- Pray for God's divine protection over our people against any new strains of Covid 19, even though the authorities have warned of the waning effectiveness of the vaccines over time.
- Pray for God to direct our government in providing essential support for lower income families in these times of rising costs.
- Continue to pray for our healthcare workers. May God strengthen them in body, mind and spirit as they continue to provide medical support to the community even as our nation treats the Covid-19 situation as an endemic.

St Hilda's Church

- Pray that our church will always find delight in fearing God. May we come before Him with humility and obedience. Pray that we can be a channel of God's peace and blessings and bring hope to those in need. “If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love is perfected in us” (1John 4:12)
- Pray for Vicar Martin, Rev Calvin, Rev Tay and the PCC / ministry leaders. May they lead the Church in faith and unity under the guardianship of the Holy Spirit, to the glory of God.
- Pray for God's continued protection over the staff / volunteers in SHK and SHCSC. May they be filled with the joy of the Lord in their service of love among the community.
- Pray for the Roofing project of the church. May the Lord oversee the whole project from beginning to the end. May God provide protection for the workers and all who are involved in the project. May the Lord grant good weather so that the project can be completed in good order and in good time.
- For the recent Church Camp, we thank God for the message that He had placed upon Dr Paul Woods to share. We also thank God for the opportunity for our campers to be able to fellowship with one another after a two-year hiatus.
- Pray for the upcoming Cambodia mission - Soccer camp and medical mission. May the Lord protect and guide Leslie Peters and his team in leading the mission. May the Lord bless the work of their hands as they minister to the pre-believers. May God open the eyes of the hearts of the pre-believers so that they can see the truth, repent and receive the special gift of salvation.
- Pray that more members will return to church for in-person services. May each homecoming be an experience of joy and fulfillment.
- Pray for the Lord's peace, healing, restoration be upon those who may be unwell / grieving and are in need of a loving touch from God.
- Pray for God's healing touch upon John (son of Ps Sunly of Cambodia) as more medical intervention is required before the operation can be carried to remove the cancerous tumor.
