ANNOUNCEMENTS – THE LARGER FAMILY

#PARISHOFTHEWEEK SEASON 2

The featured Parish of the week is St John's Chapel (SJC), from Area Group 3.

Established in 1872, St John's Chapel is one of the oldest parishes in our diocese. From humble beginnings, reaching out to farmers in Jurong, our community has flourished into a vibrant, multi-congregational church rooted in love, growth, and service. Today, St John's Chapel's mission, Ekklesia to the Nations, calls her to witness God's boundless love and lead people to Christ, both in Singapore and beyond.

Situated within St Margaret's School (Secondary), she plays a key role in providing chaplaincy support to the students. In addition, SJC supports various Boys' and Girls' Brigade companies from other schools. In line with her mission as Ekklesia to the Nations, SJC is heavily involved in the mission work in Thailand, Vietnam, Nepal and Indonesia.

Find out how you can pray for SJC via anglican.org.sg/potw or by following the Diocesan Facebook or Instagram page @dioceseofsingapore.

PRAYER BULLETIN

Diocese of Singapore

- Intercede for Bishop Titus Chung as he provides the spiritual leadership for the Province of SEA which includes the Diocese of Singapore. May God's anointing be upon him as a visionary leader, grant him with wisdom and faith to build God's kingdom.

World

- Pray for the peace between the Palestinians and Israelis. We pray that the humanitarian aid will not be politicised. Remove all attempts to block the flow of aid. May the Church remember that not far from the war zone is Calvary where Jesus Christ died for ALL. We pray that the spiritual blindness will be lifted and that all will recognise Christ as Saviour.
- We pray for the peace with God, peace from God and of God that passes all human understanding to descend upon all parties.
- Pray for the situation in Ukraine that the occupation of the disputed territories will cease. We uphold those who are traumatised by conflict. Most of all we pray that amidst the darkness, they will look up to the Lord as the Saviour who can save them and bring peace.
- Pray for Constance and the staff that they will be inspired in teaching the children and be passionate about their work. Pray for Revd Chan Phy and his team as he provides the chaplaincy work to the children. Watch over him and his family.

Singapore

- We uphold the political cabinet and all in authority who decide on political and socio-economic policies and plans in Singapore. May truth, honesty and justice prevail in the corridors of power.
- Pray against the resurgence of covid, mutation of monkey pox, bird flu and other infectious diseases.
- Pray for God to watch over the air, sea and land borders of Singapore against harm and the devil.

St Hilda's Church

- Pray for our clergy, their families that they will dwell in the shelter of the Lord and that He will raise them up on eagle's wings.
- We commit to the Lord the plans for the celebration of God's glory over past 90 years and beyond. We pray for all the details to fall into place. Most of all we pray that we will journey into the future looking to Jesus Christ as the Alpha and Omega, beginning and the end. May our hearts be right before Him and with each other. May God's peace and grace be experienced in our lives and may the fruit of the Holy Spirit arise within us.
