PRAYER BULLETIN THIS WEEK

Church

- Pray for Bp Titus as he guides the Diocese and its deaneries in these challenging but exciting times.
- Pray for our Diocese as we mourn the passing of our Chancellor. May the Lord bring forward His candidate to lead the Synod.
- Pray for the church to develop strategies to spread the gospel to pre-believers because the Lord is patient with them, not wanting anyone to perish but everyone to come to repentance.

The World & Singapore

- Pray as Archbishop Maimbo, the Chair of the Anglican Communion UN Reference Group has urged, for the UN member states to do what they can to support the office of the UN High Commissioner for Refugees in their vital work for caring for those forced to flee Ukraine.
- Pray for the Anglican church, Christ Church Kyiv, as their congregants find themselves embroiled in this crisis. Pray for those who have fled and for those that remain as they shelter as best as they can because they have nowhere to go.
- Pray for those who suffer from illnesses in the Ukraine that they may receive treatment.
- Pray for the children from Lashkar Gah in the capital of Helmand, one of Afghanistan's worst war-ravaged provinces as they are severely malnourished, and doctors have to save them from dying.
- Pray against Deltacron from entering Singapore and multiplying or mutating as travel channels open between countries.
- Pray for those from low-income families as they experience the increased prices for goods and services.

St Hilda's Church

- Praise God for preserving the lives of our clergy and their families during this Covid-19 pandemic. Pray for God's continued hand of protection over the clergy and staff of SHC.
- Pray that we shall humble ourselves and repent for the sins of ourselves and our nation, that God will forgive us.
- Pray for God's power, glory, and miracles to be revealed through the sermons of Vicar Martin, pastors Calvin Wee and Calvin Tan and Rev Hong Ern of our Chinese congregation and our prayers so that pre-believers will be in awe of God.
- Pray for those who are grieving particularly the family of the late Richard Magnus, that God will draw close to them and enfold them in His strong embrace to comfort them.
- Pray for those who are sick and are alone or depressed or oppressed that they will have a breakthrough.

MEMORY VERSE (March)
