THE COLLECT

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, and the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we may embrace and forever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRAYER BULLETIN THIS WEEK

Church

- We turn to the Lord this Advent season and pray that He would birth joy, healing, blessing and hope in us. May His love fill us and may His joy overwhelms us. Let our longing be for Immanuel with us.
- Let us pray for Christians throughout the world and especially for the safety of churches in areas where they face discrimination. Pray that the Lord would unite them and give them peace, courage and wisdom.
- Lift up Bishop Titus. May God guide this shepherd whom He has chosen to lead us. May God grant him grace as he leads the diocese to fulfil the Great Commission so that the Church will be built up and the name of Jesus glorified.

World

- Pray for God to give peace and hope to those who are suffering from injustice especially the people in Ukraine and Myanmar.
- Pray for people who are suffering from poverty who don't have enough food to feed themselves or their families and who don't have enough money for healthcare or medicine.
- Pray for all who are suffering from COVID and for the medical staff and family members who are taking care of them.
- Thank the Lord for blessing us with leaders who are concerned with the welfare of our nation and for giving our President, PM and DPM wisdom to identify and courageously address concerns that impact our country.

St Hildas' Church

- May the Lord grant our pastors and their families peace at all times and in every way (2 Thess. 3:16). May He equip them for the work He has called them to.
- During this Advent season let us pray for those who have yet to know Christ. May the Lord reveal himself to those who don't believe. Pray that we be a source of His light to those who need Him. May the Lord help us to lead people to Him through the Advent and Christmas services.
- Pray that God comfort and relieve those who are not well in body, mind and spirit. May His divine healing flow through bodies to restore them to wholeness and they may have confidence in His loving care.

MEMORY VERSE (November)

“How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, “Your God reigns!”

NOTES

“Be Still and Know You are God”

A Testimony from Ps Allison Chee

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

My journey with God

I want to give thanks and praise to God, my beloved family, the family of God at St Hilda's and the wider body of Christ for praying for me, especially during these past few weeks. My diagnosis must have come as a shock to many of you and I think some may have asked “why?”, “what happened?” “how come?” But thanks be to God - I was so filled with the overflowing love of God during my stay in hospital because I knew that many of you at St Hilda's were covering me in prayer. The song that God placed in heart was the chorus of “Still” – “when the oceans rise and thunders roar, I will soar with you above the storm, Father You are King over the flood, I will be still and know You are God”. I felt so assured that all I needed was to just be still and know that He is in control, and I will soar with Him above the storm. I felt very calm and carefree throughout my stay in hospital.

This whole episode started sometime in mid-September when I occasionally felt stuck during a conversation and had difficulty thinking, speaking or even finding words to speak. After a few seconds I was able to continue with the conversation and so I didn't think much of it. However, when I realised that it was happening a bit too frequent, I decided to make an appointment with the NNI at TTSH. I was given an appointment in May 2023. Then towards the end of September I felt light-headed now and then. Thinking that it was because I lacked sleep, I went to see my GP. He refused to give me any sleeping tablets, told me to keep calling TTSH for an earlier appointment as usually there are cancellations, and didn't even charge me for the consultation. So, I kept calling TTSH over the next few days and I finally got an earlier appointment date – in late December. In the meantime, I continued taking sleeping medication but never got a good night's sleep.

On Wednesday, 2 November, after the staff meeting, Vicar was asking me for an update on the Memorial Service for that night, and during our conversation I gradually couldn't talk. This time it was bad. It lasted longer than usual. I had to rest for a while before I recovered and then went for lunch with the staff. In the meantime, I had texted Pat to tell her that I was quite bad today. She immediately tried calling me, but my phone was still on silent mode as I forgot to turn it back to sound mode after the staff meeting. God must have moved Pat into action, and she came to church to drive me down to TTSH A&E. At the A&E I didn't have to wait too long before I was checked and sent to the Observation ward. A very nice and caring doctor attended to me. I was told that I would have to be warded for further tests and scans and that I was to change into the hospital gown. I had called my sister and so she and Pat were waiting outside the ward. I was surprised that the caring doctor came by again to show her concern. It was as if God was assuring me of His love and care for me.

From 2 – 5 November I was put through numerous scans and blood tests. The first MRI of my brain showed no evidence of a stroke but a 2 cm tumour. A contrast scan was then done, and it confirmed that it was a secondary tumour. So, a body scan had to be done the next day to determine the primary source. During the body scan they discovered a tumour on my right lung and liver, both also 2 cm in size. On Sunday, 6 November the neurosurgeon met with my family to inform that the lung tumour is in advance stage and had spread to the brain and liver. Through God's amazing orchestration, a surgery slot for the surgeon to remove the brain tumour became available earlier, on Tuesday, 8 November. At the discussion with the surgeon, I was amazingly calm that the surgeon was concerned for me. I felt calm and was at peace, but my family was shocked and shaken by the news. Before the operation on Tuesday, God must have prompted the anaesthetist to call my sister to assure her all was well and that I was fit and ready for my operation. This assurance brought much comfort to the family.

On Saturday, 12 November I was discharged from the hospital. With everything happening so quickly and without any hindrances followed by the successful operation, I was not anxious at all but full of praise and thanksgiving to God. Also, I had a wonderful team of doctors who brought much joy and cheer to me each time they checked on me. From the moment I stepped into the A&E until the day I was discharged, I could see the favour and love of God at work. Even when I was in the different wards, the nurses and cleaners were all so helpful. I thank the Lord for the opportunity to encourage and shine His love to the two patients beside me. Praise God, He enabled me to converse with them in Mandarin and Malay!

A week after my discharge I was re-admitted into TTSH for four days because I was throwing up and had a fever. As a result of my second hospitalisation, the targeted therapy which I was supposed to commence on Monday now had to be delayed by two days. I thank God for this delay because I was feeling weak and am sure that my body would not have been able to tolerate the targeted drug. God knows best and during the four-day stay my body was strengthened and I managed to put on 2 kgs from eating hospital food! Praise God for a targeted drug which, according to the oncologist, is suitable for my condition. It has been one week since I started on this targeted treatment, and I am feeling well. Thank you, Jesus! My surgeon will be reviewing my operation wound on 5 December and I will be seeing my oncologist on 15 December to assess how my body is responding to the treatment.

My family and I would like to express our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to God and to each and every one of you for your love, concern and prayers for us. I apologise that I was not able to respond to your messages, receive your calls or welcome your visit and hope you understand that after such a major operation, I need to rest to be able to recuperate well so as to be in good form for the treatment. When the oncologist is happy with my progress, you will see me back at St Hildas.

TO GOD BE ALL GLORY GREAT THINGS HE HAS DONE!!!!

With much love and appreciation,

Allison

Let us pray for Ps Allison

We praise God for His faithfulness and mercy. We thank God that He has never left Allison or forsaken her. He was walking and continues to walk with her every step of the way. And so we will put our trust in our Abba Father and pray:

- For Allison's body to be able to continue to tolerate the drug with minimal or no adverse reactions or side effects;
- that the drug will be effective in shrinking and even eradicating the tumours in her body;
- for Allison to be able to eat well, have good rest and sleep each day, and for a strong immunity that will protect her from any virus or bacterial infection;
- that Allison will grow from strength to strength in the Lord as she dwells in the shelter of the most High and rests in the shadow of the Almighty;
- that Allison and her family will continue to encounter God's presence in their lives as they experience His love and His Shalom during this time"
