- As Abp. Titus and all clergy in the Diocese and Province as they spend time daily in the Word of God in their personal life and for ministry. Pray that the Holy Spirit will refresh and inspire them together with their parish to make Jesus' name known to the communities around them.
- Pray that our clergy will be encouraged and supported in their ministry and their journey of faith and be blessed with friendship and joy of fellowship with their members.
- Together with the Diocesan staff and leaders, pray that God will reveal His glorious Kingdom to them and their spirit will be stirred with passion and zeal.

Singapore

- Pray for President Tharman, PM Wong and all members of parliament as they lead our nation with an increasing elderly population. May they be endowed with wisdom and resources in implementing care and support system for the seniors and their family.
- We pray for all seniors in Singapore to hear and to know that they are loved by the One True God and to discover the purpose and meaning of life in God Himself.

World

- As many nations are gathered for the FIFA World Cup competition, pray that this event will inspire and foster unity and peace among peoples and nations. Let's pray for a greater yearning and call for peace within every nation of the world.
- Pray for protection for all world leaders from every form of instigation for violence and hostility. May their eyes be opened to see and realise the evil of war and conflict. Pray for breakthroughs and for the world leaders to be set free from all forms of deception.
- Pray for the Lord to bring relief to every nation torn apart by war and internal conflict. Pray for believers who are living in these nations to receive divine comfort and strength to press on in their faith.

St Hilda's Church

- Pray for our church to be stirred into prayerfulness for our nation as the LoveSingapore 40-Day Nationwide Prayer Season begins from 1st July to National Day on 9th August.
- Pray for the planning and preparation of the upcoming Medical Mission in Cambodia. May this trip be an encouragement for the people there and an inspiration to all who are going on this trip.
- For our members who are homebound, living with ill-health or grieving, pray for peace and hope and that their faith continue to burn brightly. Pray that the suffering of their aging or ailing body will not hold them back from praising and worshipping God.

A DAY FILLED WITH JOY, GAMES & GRATITUDE

On 26th June 2026, St. Hilda's Community Services celebrated our annual Parents' Day at Mountbatten Community Club from 9.00am to 1.00pm, with 191 seniors in attendance. The morning was filled with fun and fellowship through many games and activities, performances, and ice cream treats.

We were honoured by the presence of MP Mdm Goh Sze Kee, whose attendance added meaning to the occasion. The event was made possible by the dedication of our volunteers and staff, who ensured everything ran smoothly.

We thank all who contributed to the success of the celebration, and especially our seniors for making the day so joyful and memorable.
